Lying Season is the 4th book in the Experiment in Terror series and is a game changer. This review does not contain spoilers. Author Karina Halle brought readers along for a great ride in the first three books, but we all knew (and desperately hoped) that certain situations would be confronted.

Lying Season was another solid addition to the Experiment in Terror series. I am really fallen in love with the characters in this book, and can't wait to read how their journey will go. There were a couple of times I was annoyed with Dex, I just wanted to smack him and tell him to look what is right in front of him. My heart broke for Perry.
